ST PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH - PV

On The Road to Damascus...

The Weekly Email Blast

April 6, 2018

Alleluia! Christ is risen! God bless each and all of you for all of your hard work and faithful service specifically during this Lenten season - and especially for Holy Week and Easter! Let us continue the ministries of our parish with Every week and Easter let us continue the ministries of our parish with renewed strength and joy and hope - the One we serve is calling us by name to care for the poor, the hungry, the sick, the naked, the imprisoned, the home bound, the thirsty. We have answered God's call with our "Yes" and we pray for each other and for the whole world as we keep our promises to serve God and our neighbor. Thank you and God bless you,

Mother Megan

Our next Movie Night will be on Sunday, April 8, at 6:00 PM. We will be viewing "My Left Foot".

Synopsis: No one expects much from Christy Brown (Daniel Day-Lewis), a boy with cerebral palsy born into a working-class Irish family. Though Christy is a spastic quadriplegic and essentially paralyzed, a miraculous event occurs when, at the age of 5, he demonstrates control of his left foot by using chalk to scrawl a word on the floor. With the help of his steely mother (Brenda Fricker) -- and no shortage of grit and determination -- Christy overcomes his infirmity to become a painter, poet and author.
