From imdb.com:

Jake and Brian are childhood best friends. They grow up and become Roman Catholic and Jewish clergy. comes back to town a stunning woman. Jake is up to be the head of his synagogue but he is not married which doesn't make his appointment any easier. Jake finds himself attracted to Anna but because she's not Jewish, he can't marry her as it would make his appointment less likely. Brian also finds himself attracted to Anna, but the priesthood doesn't allow that. Their friendship is strained when each learns of the other's feelings for her.

Pleasant Valley Weekend 2018

Pleasant Valley Day's will be July 27, 28 and 29. The theme for the weekend is 'Summer Fun.' And what could be more fun than fun and fellowship in the St. Paul's Food Trailer!

The hours for the weekend are Friday, 6pm – 10pm, Saturday 12pm – 11pm and Sunday 12pm – 7pm.

This year our menu will consist of our world famous sausage and pepper sandwiches, hot dogs, hot pretzels, and fresh lobster roll sandwiches!!

Last year PV Days earned $2542.25! Part of the reason was because we had over $206 worth of goods donated. We would like to ask for your donations of drinks again this year. Donations of monies towards expenses will not be turned away. Please look for the list soon in the Road to Damascus, on our Facebook page, and in the Sunday bulletin. Contact Nancy Adams, 635-1448 if you have any suggestions or questions.

As in years past, the hardest part of this weekend is finding enough folks to help out. Because we are keeping the Chicken BBQ in September, we are hoping to staff the trailer with a bit more ease.

We will need help in all areas from food prep, trailer set-up and Sunday break down.

Last year we had folks work in one hour blocks or however long they wished to work. We will accommodate YOU!! Sign-up sheets will be posted in the parish hall beginning in June. We need at least 4 people available on each shift. So sign up early for prime slots! Please contact Nancy Adams, 635-1448 or Barb Rawls, 635-8517 if you can work a shift.

Thank you all for your support!
